Northern Chainsaw Carving Available on Display at BL Review

This commissioned northern chainsaw carving by Char-ley Sargent, from Detroit Lakes, has been specially crafted to raise funds for our armed forces and will be on display in the Bay Gallery. Second place is signed by the artist and will include a package of 1256 Timbers and one Gregor Mackey signed original design. The limited edition fish will be available Monday soon from The Northern Chainsaw Carving Fund located in the Ye Olde Station on South Lake Avenue. Exceptions may exceptionally be made by appointment. The store will be closed when Jason does work on upholstery. The entry fee is $45. Advance registration is required by calling 218-862-4603.

M State Fills FF Community Need With Empty Bowls

Area residents are invited to come to the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event kicked off by the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event a minimum donation of $15, with proceeds donated to the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event. M State students are providing handmade ceramic bowls in exchange for a minimum donation of $15, with proceeds donated to the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event.

Self Defense Class For Women

A free self defense class for women will be offered at Battle Lake School on Monday, April 11. Registration is at 6:30 p.m. and the class is from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Lieutenant Barry Fitzhugh and Deputy Robert Backhaus are the instructors. The class registration is an essential part of self defense and is taught by the Battle Lake Community Education.

Watercolor Class

Both kids and adults can learn to paint the watercolor painting class on Monday, April 10. 4 weeks 6-9 p.m. $60 for 4 week course $15 for 1 week class. Participants will create an 11"x14" painting of a landscape, portraits with eggs, and pastel. Materials and watercolor paper are included in the class fee, so there is no additional cost. Students are expected to try their hand at watercolor classes. This class $45. Advanced registration is preferred by calling 218-862-4603.

M State Fills FF Community Need With Empty Bowls

This community event is the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event. Area residents are invited to come to the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event. This event is kicked off by M State students providing handmade ceramic bowls in exchange for a minimum donation of $15, with proceeds donated to the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event. M State students are providing handmade ceramic bowls in exchange for a minimum donation of $15, with proceeds donated to the Empty Bowls fundraiser. It is a community event.